Grade: 12

Course: English Literature and Composition AP Section: 2 Teacher: Ron Bell

	Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Semester 1	Quarter 3
Grade	A	A	A	A
Exam			A

This quarter, AP English students worked on critical analysis of fiction, literary research writing, the history of fiction, and preparation for the AP exam. Texts included Shelley's Frankenstein, Austen's Pride and Prejudice, and a variety of short stories from all periods. Next quarter will focus heavily on in-class writing in preparation for the AP as well as for college essay exams.

Robbie, your paper on Twain was really extraordinary: a very thorough and sophisticated argument, very fully documented. You could definitely have turned this one in to a college class. I'd say you're more than ready for the next step.

Course: Calculus BC AP Section: 1 Teacher: Glenn Mangold

	Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Semester 1	Quarter 3
Grade	A	A	A	A
Exam			A

Note: Seniors must take a semester final unless they either take the AP exam or have at least a B average for the semester with neither quarter grade lower than a B-.

Robbie continues to excel in a difficult math course. He is a very hard worker. He is always willing to ask questions and discuss his solutions with the class. His enthusiasm for "pure math" is refreshing; he seems as interested in abstract proof as he is in practical application. It is a pleasure to have him in AP Calculus.

Course: Biology Section: 1 Teacher: Robin Altman

	Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Semester 1	Quarter 3
Grade	A	A	A	A
Exam			A

Course: Biology

Robbie continues to excel in Biology! He earned a 98.5% average on homework, a 100% average on labs, and a 98% average on tests/quizzes during second quarter. From both an academic standpoint and an interpersonal standpoint, Robbie is such a pleasure to have in class. His good humor and engaged attention during class are a delightful combination. Way to go, Robbie!

Course: Art History AP

Section: 1

Teacher: Joel Rickert

	Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Semester 1	Quarter 3
Grade	A	A	A	A
Exam			A

Robbie continued his astonishing academic journey through AP Art History. This is what a near-perfect student looks like: paying attention in class, taking copious notes, asking questions for clarification, completing all homework on time, succeeding in class presentations and projects, and thanking the teacher at the end of class. Robbie's re-creation of van Eyck's Man in a Red Turban was well-wrought. He earned 99% of all points possible this quarter.

Robbie never used any excuses for anything. He gave 100% every time. The main thing I will always remember about Robbie is that he says thank you after every game, every practice, and every workout. Robbie is a great all-around player and has been a pleasure to coach.
